

For some people, the arrival of September brings a sigh of relief! It is the month the children go back to school! There are fewer cars on the roads! Autumn is just around the corner!

..... and did you know that September is the only month with the same number of letters in its name as the number of the month?

WHAT'S ON IN SEPTEMBER

8th September 2018. The Westmorland County Show. It is one of the largest and oldest day shows in England, having been founded in 1799. Crooklands, Kendal.

9th September 2018. Kendal Torchlight Carnival. The carnival is an annual procession through the town centre of Kendal and this year's theme is "Celebrating Kendal's Spirit" and will start at 7.30pm. On the following afternoon, it will host the first street party, which will see the town taken over by carnival acts, performances and workshops – and the Torchlight trophy presentation

22nd – 24th September 2018. Taste Cumbria returns once more to Cockermouth – the town where it all began! Now the county's biggest and best food festival.
